2020 ANNUAL MEETING AUTHOR INSTRUCTIONS

Abstract Word Maximum Limit: 250

Abstract Word Minimum Limit: 50

The AAPS Annual Meeting provides the ultimate forum for work in Plastic Surgery. Papers from the following categories of Plastic Surgery will be considered with emphasis on cutting edge breakthroughs in the field:

Breast Reconstruction

Aesthetic Breast/Body Contouring

Aesthetic Face

Craniofacial/Peds

Basic Science Research

Hand/Extremity

General Reconstruction

Education/Practice Management/Other

The Program Committee is looking to create a broad and balanced program, but most of all we urge you to save your best and most thoughtful work for this prestigious meeting. Equal consideration will be given to aesthetic and reconstructive surgery papers.

Please carefully note the abstract deadline of Monday, September 30, 2019

11:59 pm EDT.

All submissions must be authored, co-authored, or sponsored by a Fellow of the American Association of Plastic Surgeons.

To insure the excellence of our scientific program, papers submitted for presentation at a meeting of the AAPS cannot have been presented at any other national meeting as an oral or poster presentation or published in any journals. Exceptions to this policy are the Plastic Surgery Research Council and at local/regional meetings.

NOTE – the submitters MUST fully complete the Abstract Submission statements which relate to the manuscript – copy appended here for information, online form through abstract submission system. Failure to complete the statements and indicate the status of the work, prior or multiple publications, and any potential Conflicts of Interest will result in the abstract not being moved forward for review or consideration to the 2020 Annual Meeting.

Presentation Format and Descriptions

Full Oral Presentation: Delivered in full Scientific Session, PowerPoint slides support. The Presenter is allowed 8 minutes for presentation with 2 minute discussant questions/feedback followed by 5 minutes of Questions and Answers with the audience.

PLEASE NOTE: Residents are allowed to present full length oral presentations only if the senior author is present during the session.

Short Oral Presentation: Delivered in the Innovations scientific session. The goal of the short format is to provide a forum for sharing novel ideas, techniques, case presentations, and research findings related to Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery. The Author is allotted 3 minutes for this “Straight to the Point” presentation format. There will be very strict time limits and “No Questions” at the podium. All authors in this session ascend and depart the stage in rapid succession with additional discussion and questions taking place off the podium at the back of the room.

Poster Display Only: Selected posters will be on display throughout the annual meeting. No presentation is required. This poster should be self-explanatory.

Resident Poster Competition Eligibility Requirements

For abstracts to be considered as a part of the Resident Poster Competition, the author must meet all of the following criteria:

1. The Presenting Author is a Resident as of the abstract submission deadline.
2. They are the first author on the paper.
3. The Presenting Author will attend the Annual Meeting should the paper be accepted.

Any abstracts accepted as a participant in the Resident Poster Competition will be eligible for cash prizes.

Abstracts not selected for the Resident Poster Competition Presentation are still eligible for inclusion within the general scientific program. Only one abstract submission is necessary and multiple submissions may result in the abstract being disqualified from consideration.

Body Contouring Research Foundation Awards Eligibility Requirements

The Body Contouring Research Foundation and the AAPS will recognize the distinguished clinical results of an abstract focusing on body contouring and stem cell research.

For abstracts to be considered for the BCRF Young Clinician Award, the presenting author must be under age 45 at the time of the submission.

Any abstract accepted for the award will be eligible for cash prizes.
